LIBRARY of CONGRESS

The Best Guaranty of Merit Is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities.

The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, overworked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants than is alcohol; and, furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient antiferment.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Not only do physicians prescribe the above, non-secret medicines largely, but the most intelligent people endorse them—people who would not think of using the ordinary patent, or secret medicines. Every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines has the strongest kind of professional endorsement from leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. No other medicines put up for like purposes has any such professional endorsement.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." Easy to take as candy.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Another Hitch in Church Negotiations.

The clerical organs in Paris unite in declaring that Cardinal Richard, 'archbishop of Paris, will not submit to the new proposal of the government regarding church leases, and their Rome dispatches categorically insist that Pope Pius is resolved to maintain integrally the original text offered by the French episcopate, and to refuse even to discuss the government's exceptions relative to the liability of parish priests for the keeping up of church and the exclusion of foreign priest or members of dissolved orders of parties to the contracts. Whether these inspired statements are only part of the diplomatic game remains to be seen.

Premier Clemenceau now admits frankly that so far as he is concerned he never expected the church to accept the conditions as to leases, but he says that Minister of Education Briand did, and that the cabinet unanimously accorded him a chance to conclude the negotations upon the terms stated.

"The future will show which is right; whether he is the victim of an illusion or I am mistaken," the premier added.

"If no agreement is reached, what will happen?" Premier Clemenceau was asked.

"Nothing very terrible," the premier replied. "I think we will return to the solution previously contemplated. The churches will remain open, that goes without saying, and, it is conceded, without lease to the clergy, and the State department or commune, as the case may be, will bear the cost of keeping up repairs to the church out of the funds of the church itself. But rest assured the government will go no further in the matter of concessions. The republican majority in the Chamber of Deputies would not indorse it, nor would any member of the cabinet, not even M. Briand, favor yielding more."

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, and safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Killed by a Brakeman.

Solomon Snyder, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, shot and killed Samuel Weaver shortly after midnight Saturday night at the former's home, just north of York, Pa. Snyder, who has been married for sometime, has it is alleged, had a thorny path over which to travel. He had been suspecting his wife for sometime, and Saturday night concluded to return home at an unsuspected hour. He took several drinks and made his way home. When he reached the house he listened. He heard strange voices within. He quickly opened the door and rushed in. He discovered Weaver in the room. Snyder drew his revolver and proceeded to fire. Mrs. Snyder and Weaver fled from the house. Several bullets took effect in the back of Weaver's head and back, and when about 50 yards from the house he fell from exhaustion and loss of blood.

Mrs Snyder took refuge in the house of a neighbor. After the shooting Snyder returned to York. He went to the yardmaster of the Pennsylvania Railroad and handed over his keys. He then went to police headquarters, and told his story.

Policemen were detailed to the scene of the tragedy. When they reached the place everything was as quite as death. Their repeated calls brought forth no response. They made a search of the premises, and about 50 yards distant, in a snow-covered field, they found young Weaver lying unconscious and slowly bleeding to death. He was without hat, coat or shoes. His body was stiff from the cold. He was picked up and carried to the York Hospital, where he died at 10:30 yesterday.

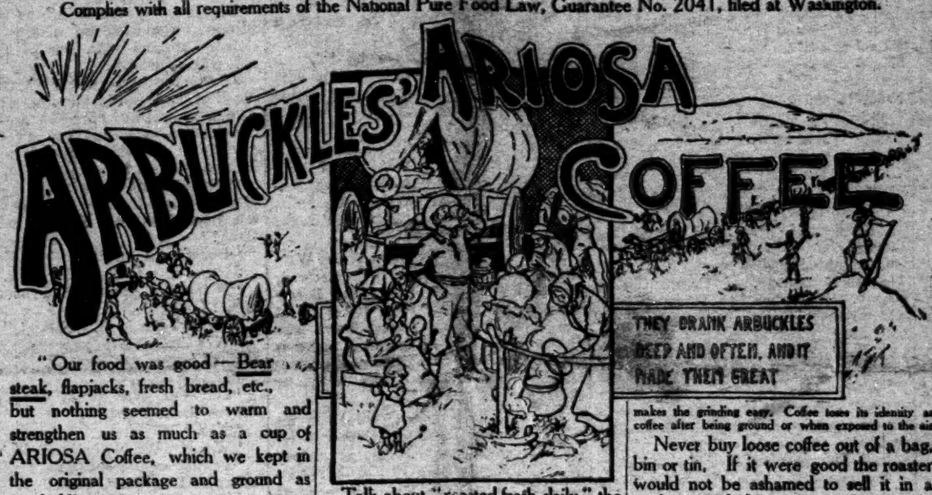
Minister's Terrible Fate.

The terribly mutilated and dismembered body of Rev. Dr. Everett D. Burr, a prominent Baptist clergyman of Newton Center, near Westboro, Mass., was found yesterday lying beside the tracks of the Boston and Albany division of the New York Central Railroad near a bridge. The face was bruised beyond recognition, the skull was fractured, both arms were broken, and both legs amputated. The clothing was torn to shreds. Medical Examiner Charles S. Knight stated that death was due to accident. He said that the victim had undoubtedly fallen from a moving train while passing from one car to another; that his clothing had been caught by some part of the train and the body dragged over the ties for about 400 feet, the blood on the sleepers indicating that the body had been dragged that distance.

Everett D. Burr was one of the best-known clergymen of the Baptist denomination in Massachusetts. He was an alumnus of Brown University and the Crozier Theological Seminary of Pennsylvania. For several years he was pastor of the Ruggles Street Baptist Church in Boston. He was forty-five years of age and is survived by a wife and two children.

Complies with all requirements of the National Pure Food Law, Guarantee No. 2041, filed at Washington.



"Our food was good—Bear steak, flapjacks, fresh bread, etc., but nothing seemed to warm and strengthen us as much as a cup of ARIOSA Coffee, which we kept in the original package and ground as needed." From a gentleman now in Bethlehem.

Arbuckles' ARIOSA was the first roasted packaged coffee,—packaged for the consumer's protection and the pores of each berry sealed after the roasting with fresh eggs and sugar to keep the goodness in and make the coffee settle clear and quickly.

Talk about "roasted fresh daily," the way to get a cup of coffee that tastes like coffee, with all the delicious flavor and aroma intact, is to buy Arbuckles' ARIOSA and grind it as you want to use it. Warming it a little develops the flavor and makes the grinding easy. Coffee loses its identity as coffee after being ground or when exposed to the air

Never buy loose coffee out of a bag, bin or tin. If it were good the roaster would not be ashamed to sell it in a package with his name on it.

The sales of Arbuckles' ARIOSA exceed those of all the other packaged coffees combined. It is the best coffee for you, and costs you less.

Congressional Junket Planned.

Determined to see for themselves what is being accomplished toward building the panama canal, a party of half a hundred or more senators and representatives consisting mainly of those from the Middle Western States, will leave New York March 6 for the isthmus.

The party will arrive at Colon March 13, begin the return journey March 18, giving the legislators five days on the isthmus, and reach New York March 25. All senators and representatives who make the trip will be granted free round trip transportation, including berths and meals and free transportation on the isthmus. The only necessary expenses will be hotel accomodations for the seven days they are in the Canal Zone. The trip both ways will be made on the steamer Alliance, of the Panama Railroad Steamship Company.

A number of the senators and representatives had a meeting with Secretary Bishop, of the canal commission, who outlined the plans of the trip for them.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Only a little cold in the head may be the beginning of an obstinate case of Nasal Catarrh. Drive out the invader with Ely's Cream Balm applied straight to the inflamed stuffed air-passage. Price 50c. If you prefer to use an atomizer, ask for Liquid Cream Balm. It has all the good qualities of the remedy in solid form and will rid you of catarrh or hay fever. No cocaine to breed a dreadful habit. No mercury to dry out the secretion. Price 75c, with spraying tube. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 25, 1907.

MR. C. H. ACKERT, vice president and general manager of the Southern Railway, has sent to officials and employees copies of an address of President Finley delivered by him to representatives of the system at Atlanta on the 13th instant. President Finley, among other things, said that it is the earnest desire of the officers of the company to promote and maintain harmonious relations with all those doing business with the Southern Railway and to increase the efficiency of the road in every direction. In connection with this general question of consideration for the public, and in addition to other duties of employees in this respect, he desires it to be understood that whenever there is an unusual delay to a passenger train, the cause of it, so far as known, and its probable duration, should be politely and frankly communicated by those in charge of the train to the passengers, and their questions in respect to it should be considerately answered. In all matters the bearing of employees toward passengers, as well as toward all patrons and toward the public, should be governed by a high sense of courtesy and consideration. The above marks a new departure in the operation of railway trains, and shows that the Southern Company has a practical, thoughtful and accomodating gentleman at the head of the system.

AFTER all the speculation of the last five thousand years concerning the location of the Garden of Eden, the site has at last been discovered, according to Prof. Clinton McMickle, a Kansas scientist. Some writers have been convinced that the paradise in which the original pair was placed was in the vale of Cashmere, others in certain localities in Armenia, some at the North Pole, while a few have dreamed that Eden was in the sun, the moon, or on this or that planet. Prof. McMickle has placed it in Yazoo county, Miss. So confident is he of the correctness of his conclusions that he wants to organize a stock company for the purpose of making extensive excavations on the farm of W. A. Henry, a lawyer and planter, located about seven miles south of Yazoo City, for the purpose of unearthing the ruins of a once-splended city erected shortly after the expulsion of Adam and Eve from the garden. Professor McMickle is absolutely positive that on the Henry farm will be found the ruins of a magnificent temple, the doors of which are of pure gold.

ANOTHER PERSON has become deranged from reading the proceedings in the trial of Harry Thaw for murdering Stanford White. The last victim is a seventeen-year-old girl in Kittanning, Pa. Some people have a theory that the publication of the proceedings has a tendency to increase crime, as there are persons in various parts of the world who are in positions similar to those which surrounded the principals in the Thaw case before the tragedy, and by daily perusal of the proceedings in this infamous trial they see themselves mirrored and are liable to have their brains temporarily addled to such a degree that a desperation is superinduced which ends in murder.

A SPECIAL report of Pure Food Commissioner Jones, of Illinois, to Governor Deneen, and circulated among the legislators, reveals the fact that of thirty-five cities investigated, every one had milk from unclean and insanitary dairies sold within its limits; while in seventy-six suits the charge of adulteration with formaldehyde was made, in most cases the defendants pleading guilty. This condition of affairs prevails to a greater or less extent in nearly all the cities throughout the country.

IN REPLY to the recent letter which Governor Guild, of Massachusetts, sent to the President urging tariff revision and stating that the test should not be, "Is such a duty demanded," but "Is such a duty needed?" the President assured the Governor that his communication is entitled to and will receive serious consideration on his own part, as it undoubtedly will on the part of Congress. But undoubtedly it has not, nor will it at this session.

A GREAT demonstration was held in London Saturday to protest against the socialistic policy of the London County Council. It shows the popular revolt against the extravagance in municipal-ownership experiments. These experiments are very expensive and are being proven failures wherever tried.

Washington, Feb. 25.

Memorial services on the life, work and character of the late Representative J. F. Rixey, of the Eighth Virginia District, were held in the House today. Owing to the rush of business, the House met at 10 o'clock and nearly two hours were devoted to the speeches relating to the late Virginian statesman. Mr. Jones, of Virginia, occupied the chair. The eulogies were by Messrs Jones, Lamb, Hay, Flood and Glass, of Virginia; DeArmond, of Missouri; McCall, of Minnesota; Foss, of Illinois; Williams, of Mississippi and Kitchen, of North Carolina. A number of relatives of the deceased Congressman occupied seats in the members' gallery. The eulogies were all admiral and in good taste, and showed plainly in what esteem Mr. Rixey was held by his colleagues. The attendance on the floor was much larger than is usual on such occasions.

Three important measures were today given their death blow at the hands of the Senate committee on judiciary. There are bills giving to the States the right of control over liquors as soon as they pass the State boundaries; to protect labor from the competition of convict labor; and to limit the powers of the Postoffice Department in the issuance of fraud orders. Each of these measures has been passed by the House, but the Senate committee came to the conclusion that the questions involved were of so much importance that it would be impossible to secure action upon either of them at this stage of the session. So they were definitely laid aside.

Mr. Babcock, chairman of the House District of Columbia committee, it is understood, has stated that he will leave no stone unturned to have passed the wide tire bill.

The trial of Mrs. Anna Bradley, indicted for the murder of former Senator Brown, of Utah, was begun in Criminal Court No. 1 before Judge Stafford today. She plead not guilty. No date was set for the trial.

Gen. Frederick D. Grant has written a letter to the President explaining that in his speech Friday evening at a G. A. R dinner in Philadelphia, the general used no language that could be construed into a criticism of the chief executive. The printed reports of the speech contained misquotations, says General Grant. Having been ordered to Washington several days ago to confer with General Bell, chief or staff, relative to the military encampment at Norfolk during the Jamestown exposition, Gen. Grant had an opportunity today to discuss the Philadelphia speech with Secretary Taft, to whom he explained that the farthest thing from his thoughts was a criticism of the commander-in-chief of the army. It is understood that the War Department is fully satisfied with Gen. Grant's explanation, although none had been requested. It is understood that the President had not asked for an explanation.

Sergeant Francoise L. Altmon, of the Hospital Corps, white, who was stationed at Brownsville at the time of the shooting affair which resulted in the discharge of three companies of soldiers, was cross examined there today by Senator Foraker in the Senate committee. W. H. Sharpe, white, a blacksmith, Rollin Osborn, white, post-quartermaster, and Chas. J. Rudy, private of company C, were also cross-examined. Nothing new was developed.

In a bulletin issued today the Geological Survey says that the recession of the Horse-shoe fall at Niagara has averaged five feet a year since 1842. The recent extensive diversion of water for economic used is expected to reduce the erosion.

The widow of Gen. Stonewall Jackson will soon be receiving a pension of $30 a month. The bill is now on its way to the White House for the signature of the President. The measure had a close call. It passed the Senate some months ago but for some reason it got held up in the House committee on pensions and would have died this Congress if the attention of President Roosevelt hadn't been called to it. He didn't want to interfere with legislation, but his wishes, when made known to Chairman Londenslager by Mr. Longworth, who had been selected as the intermediary, had the desired effect. The bill was reported and passed without further delay.

In advocating the passage of the Aldrich financial bill Senator Depew, of New York, today declared that in every civilized country but ours money, when collected by the government, is immediately deposited in the banks. Here the customs receipts, which last year amounted to $300,000,000, are immediately looked up and taken from circulation. "The Secretary of the Treasury," he said. "in times of great financial disaster from want of currency takes out a portion of this money and deposits it temporarily in banks which are government depositories. It is done under a power which has been questioned. There should be no question whatever upon a transaction of this nature." Arguing for an element of elasticity in the currency he said. "We are the only one of the highly organized financail and industrial countries which has a currency absolutely inelastic, a currency which responds in no way to the requirements of business or to the needs of the people." He endorsed the plan proposed by the Chamber of Commerce of New York and by the Associated Banks of the United States for the establishment of a system of credit currency properly secured.

State Library Affair.

One of the biggest sensations connected with the recent state library investigation came to light Saturday afternoon, when it became known that S. S. P. Patterson, a member of the executive committee of the state library board, had publicly spoken of the library assistants who testified against John P. Kennedy as "rascals" and had been asked for an explanation by the several library assistants. When word of Patterson's accusation first came to the ears of the library staff the members were greatly shocked to learn that he had made the matter of the investigation his own personal affair. They at once made representations to Patterson for an explanation of the stand that he had taken in the matter and the language he had used, and a sharp correspondence was interchanged.

Fell From a Train.

Edward Frost, of Richmond, was found about 6 o'clock last night lying beside the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad, a short distance from the passenger station, in Washington, suffering from a severe scalp wound on the side of his head. The man was sent to the Emergency Hospital. It is said that Frost fell from the Seaboard Air Line express, as it drew in to the passenger station. It was said at the hospital last night that Frost's condition was not serious.

Mr. I. Freeman Rasin, leader of the Maryland democratic organization, was stricken with sudden illness Saturday night at his home in Baltimore. Mr. Rasin has been active in politics for 40 years.

The House at 11:45 adjourned until 10 o'clock Sunday, when eulogies were delivered on the life and public services of the late Senator Alger, of Michigan, and Representatives Adams, of Wisconsin, and Ketcham and Flack, of New York.

Panic in a Church.

Two hundred persons, most of them little children, rushed panic-stricken from the Italian Catholic Church at Grand avenue and Peoria street, Chicago, yesterday morning, when a cry of fire was raised.

Many of them were injured and crushed in the mad flight. Others were knocked down and trampled upon, while many of the children leaped through a window which was shattered. The window was but seven feet from the ground, and was the means of escape of most of the children.

Many were trampled into unconsciousness and had to be carried to the street. Cries of fire filled the church and streets in the immediate vicinity, and the excitement increased when fire engines and patrol wagons reached the scene. Scores of frightened children stumbled and fell down the stairway leading to the street, only to be caught in a jam like the victims of the Iroquois Theater disaster.

The panic was caused by the escape of steam from a radiator. A woman shouted "Fire!" adding to the terror. Immediately there ensued a scene of wild confusion, and it was impossible for the priests or their assistants to prevent the mad rush. The panic occurred in the midst of the children's mass.

Big Initiation Fee.

Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of Senator Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, has whatever distinction accrues from being the only active woman member of the cross-country club, located at The Plains, Fauquier county, Va. This club, of which E. H. Harriman was the principal promoter, is an organization of millionaires, and in order to keep it exclusive—money exclusive—the initiation fee is $10,000 and the yearly dues are $2,000. She is one of the best riders in Washington, and has a passion for cross-country runs. Her father secured her election to the club, paid the $10,000 initiation fee and the $2,000 annual dues in advance, and then put the membership certificate and the money receipt in his daughter's stocking for a Christmas present. This exclusive hunting club has one of the finest estates in Fauquier county. The club-house is magnificant, and the fox hunting and the hunting of other kinds of game are perhaps better than in any other part of Virginia. The club's property is situated only forty miles from the city of Washington.—[Fairfax Herald.

Counsel for Charles Good, who is under sentence of death in Page county for the murder of Miss Bennie Stroop, his sweetheart, has given notice of an appeal of the case to the Court of Appeals It is alleged that the young man killed his sweetheart November 20 of last year. At the trial in the early part of January he entered a vigorous denial of the charge and claimed that he shot the young woman accidentally.

It now appears that according to the laws of Virginia, any person having negro blood in his veins, yet possessed of less than one-forth of it, is recognized under the statutes as a white man or woman. The people generally hold that one drop of negro blood makes a negro, and the solution of the problem bids fair to become an issue in this State in the near future. The Virginia legislative body will assemble in Richmond next year and there seems scarcely any doubt but that the existing situation will be brought to the attention of the members.

The Strother Trial.

The sheriff of Culpeper county, who was sent by Judge Harrison to Shenandoah county to get a venire of 50 men for the trial of the Strother brothers, with orders to report to the court today, returned to Culpeper Saturday, having summoned 50 men, several of whom accompanied him.

The trial will not be delayed on account of the illness of Mrs. Bywaters, who, according to advices is so far recovered as to announce that she can be on hand.

The defense will allege as adequate cause for the killing the manner in which Bywaters treated the sister of the indicted men before the forced marriage. The impression heretofore has been that the Strother brothers thought their sister's husband was trying to leave her immediately after the marriage, to return no more.

Culpeper, Va., Feb. 25.—With little delay a panal of sixteen jurors was selected today to pass on the guilt of Philip and James Strother for killing William F. Bywaters. When court opened all of the forty-five veniremen answered to their names.

The panel was a fine-looking set of men. Most of them are elderly The majority of them are married and have families.

After the sixteenth man was seated counsel for the defense was granted half an hour to confer over excusing four of the talesmen.

The twelve men in whose hands the fate of the accused now rests are:

Asa A. Sheetz, N. M. Bushong, M. A. Price, Daniel Lickliter, W. C. Lantz, Josiah Wisman, James O. Bott, Charles O. Keller, P. M. Jarrett, J. C. Downes, W. H. Flemming and W. W. Bird.

After the jury was sworn the defendants were arranged on three counts of the indictment, charging homicide and assault with intent to kill. Both stood with their eyes levelled at the clerk.

The jury was then introducted as to how to bring in its verdict.

When court reconvened, after a recess Commonwealth Attorney Keith made the opening for the State. He said the Commonwealth expected to prove a brutal, deliberate, and malicious homicide.

Attorney John L. Jeffries, senior counsel for the defense, responded, saying it would be shown that the Strother brothers had every justification.

The Laying Power of Hens.

A chicken fancier who read Mr Starnell's article on his fine laying hens would like for him to explain for the benefit of other poultry growers how he can say that he has one hen that is the gratest layer in the United States, when he has 35 hens laying in the same house and no trap nest to catch the hen that is doing the most laying, as it is impossible to tell one egg from another in the Barred Plymouth Rock line, as they all lay a brown egg—that is the registered stock. With the trap nest and numbered leg-band on the hen it is easy enough, as when the hen enters the nest she has to stay there until someone releases her, and then by looking at the number of the leg-band you can see just which hen is doing the most laying. This is the method used at the government experimental station, where, of course, experienced men are employed. X.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Feb. 25.—A persistent rumor about the corridors of the criminal courts building at the time of the opening of court, today, was that, before the day was over, District Attorney Jerome would apply for a lunacy commission, to sit on Harry Thaw. Jerome was said to have made this statement privately in the court when it convened. With the proceedings now under way it is impossible to get to the prosecutor to secure a confirmation.

Evelyn Thaw was called as the first witness. She came in with a springy step and seemed well, except that her eyes had a sad look.

Jerome began his examination by asking Evelyn if, while she was living in Allegheny, she had not had trouble with her mother, and had run away with another girl. Evelyn denied this, and Jerome dropped the subject

"How long after the night you were drugged was it that the account for you was opened at the New Amsterdam Bank?"

"I could not tell."

Jerome then took another tack.

"When did you meet Frances Belmont?"

"When I was in 'Floradora.'"

"Was that before you met Stanford White?"

"I think so."

"Did you ever go to supper with Frances Belmont?"

"Yes."

"Was Mr. White at all those dinners?"

"I think so, except those I described before at Berger's."

Jerome whispered the names of two men to Evelyn, asking if she had gone to supper with them. She answered they had been at suppers she attended, but she did not go with them.

Jerome in putting these questions was reading from the statement made to him by Mrs. Holman, Evelyn's mother.

"Now, do you remember about a party you were to attend on the night of February 22, 1902?"

"Yes, I did go to a party that night."

Jerome seemed surprised. He referred to Mrs. Holman's statement.

"Isn't it a fact that Miss Belmont wanted you to go, but you had bronchitis and the doctor did not want you to go out—that Stanford White was telephoned, and said you must not go?"

Evelyn denied the question in full. She said she had attended the party.

He presented a letter identified by the witness, as having been written by Stanford White. It was dated June 20, 1902, and was addressed to Charles Hartnett, White's secretary. It was as follows:

"Dear Hartnett:—Please telephone up to Mrs. Nesbit and get her to let you know when Miss Evelyn decided to take her vacation. Then send the following to the Mercantile Trust Company:

"'Dear Sir:—Please notify Miss Nesbit that upon receipt of written notice that she is about to take her vacation, the weekly checks for $25 will be sent or the total sum of $100.

"Stanford White."

Evelyn denied that the American Embassy at London had interfered to have her taken away from Thaw on their European trip. She said a secretary of the embassy, who wanted her to go on the stage in London, had sneaked into her mother's bedroom, while Mrs. Nesbit was in bed, and talked about her.

Further on in her examination Jerome's battery of questions caused Evelyn to admit that Thaw previous to her marriage had sent her money while the couple were in Paris, but witness said she had returned it. She said it did not occur to her as improper, as she was accustomed to seeing other girls receive money.

"Did you ever go out with Barrymore and stay all night and send your mother a telegram saying that you would stay with some person other than Barrymore?" asked Jerome.

"No, sir, I do not remember anything of the kind. I never stayed out all night with Barrymore."

"Did your mother ever complain of your staying out with Barrymore?"

"She did not like him."

"Why did they send you to school at Pompton?"

"To get me away from Mr. Barrymore."

"Did you tell White, who was sending you to Europe?"

"Yes, I told him it was a friend of ours. Mamma told me not to tell who it was."

"Yet, you took his letter of credit for eighty pounds?"

"I received something from him, I didn't know what it was then I remember signing something for him."

"Did you use any of this money?"

"My mother did."

"Did you?"

"I spent some of it for mamma."

Jerome led the witness over the time time of her now well known trip with Thaw through Europe enumerating the Austrian Tyrol, as some of the stopping places.

She repeated her story of last week of living with Thaw in part of an old castle he had rented in the Austrian Tyrol.

Evelyn recalled to stand after the noon recess. She testified that when she left Thaw in Paris, in 1902, to return home, he gave her one thousand dollars.

"Did Thaw learn abont your using money of White's?"

"Yes, and he got very much excited.

"Did he continue to urge you to marry him?"

"Yes. He said I was only an unfortunate girl and he thought as much of me as ever, and asked me to marry him."

Investigating the Harriman Lines.

New York, Feb. 25.—The interstate commerce commission today resumed its inquiry into the secrets of the Harriman lines. It is believed that there will be sensational developments in the testimony of the two principal witnesses, Harriman and Jacob Schiff. Harriman was called to the stand as the first witness in the investigation of the operation of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific systems. Harriman unfolded the story of one of the most gigantic stock speculations of modern times.

The firemen concentrated their efforts on trying to save the old building, but the guests were ordered out and it believed it will go.

Robbery at Chicago Sub treasury.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Between $175,000 and $200 000 was stolen from the local sub-treasury last week. A faint clew pointed in the direction of a clerk who showed signs of breaking down when questioned Just what he admitted the secret service men refused to disclose All the money was in $1,000, $5.000, and $10,000 bills.

The exact amount of missing money now is stated to be $173.000.

Washington, Feb. 25. Deputy assistant treasurer of the United States Gideon C. Bantz is on his way to Chicago to investigate the shortage in the accounts of the sub-treasury. Cyclone in the Phillippines.

London, Feb. 25.—Two hundred persons have deen killed and thousands rendered homeless in a cyclone which struck the southern points of the Philippine Islands, according the special cables received here today. The details of the disaster are given owing to the fact that communication with the afflicated points has been severely interrupted.

Washington, Feb. 25.—No mention was made of any cyclone in the Philippines in the regular daily cable received by the Insular Bureau today. Officials are inclined to believe that the press reports from London were based on the cyclone which occurred about a month ago, and which is described in the Manila papers just received here.

Washington, Feb. 25.

SENATE.

When the Senate met at 11 o'clock this morning it decided to take a recess from six to 8:15 p. m.

Mr. Lodge, who has the Dominican treaty in charge, announced that he would ask that the doors be closed at the night session.

Senator Lodge has prepared an amendment which he will offer to the sundry civil bill. It carries an appropriation of $5,000 to enable the President to execute the recently enacted Japanese coolie exclusion law.

The Senate passed a bill providing for the appointment of an additional judge for the northern district of California.

Without debate the Senate passed the pension appropriation bill and agreed to the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill.

When the Senate today resumed consideration of the agricultural bill, an amendment was agreed to, prohibiting the creation of forest reserves in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming, except by an act of Congress.

The Beveridge amendment, requiring beef packers to put the date of inspection on the label, was agreed to. Mr Warren made a point of order against Beveridge's other amendment, fixing upon the beef packers the cost of governmental inspection.

Mr. Beveridge pointed out the gross injustice to vegetarian tax-payers under existing law.

Mr. Gallinger said he hoped the issue would be pressed until the packers were made to stand their just expenses.

HOUSE

The House today considered matters pertaining to the District of Columbia, when the eulogies on the late Representative Rixey, of Virginia, had been pronounced.

Mr. Mann refused the necessary unanimous consent to an amendment to a bill affecting the local street car companies, which provided three cent fares within the District of Columbia.

It was practically decided by the rules committee today to bring up the ship subsidy bill under a rule that will provide for limited general debate unrestricted rights to offer amendments and a definite vote on Friday.

By the House adopting the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill and this supply measure was successfully put through the legislative bill.

Death of Mr. Lambert.

Mr. W. Frank Lambert, son of Mr. W. H. Lambert, whose critical illness from pneumonia had been mentioned in the Gazette, died at his home on Duke street shortly after 5 o'clock this morning. The Citizens' National Bank of which he had long been an officer has been draped in mourning as a mark of respect. The announcement of his death will be read with sincere regret by all his friends and acquaintances with whom he was deservedly popular. The deceased was a prominent and useful citizen and an energetic and practical member of the business community. Naturally endowed with business instincts, his long apprenticeship in the financial world had enabled him to become proficient in his calling. He had in his juvenile days entered the Citizens' National Bank as a clerk, and his assiduity, responsibility and practical ideas were causes for his early advancement. He later became assistant cashier, then cashier and was vice president of the bank at the time of his death. He was also a director in the Alexandria Water Company. While he was closely devoted to his calling, he found time to participate in some of the diversions of life, and was a member of the Old Dominion Boat Club and of the Golf Club. Besides his widow, the deceased leaves a father, a brother, Mr. Arthur Lambert, and two sisters, Mrs. Florence Bell and Mrs. Louisa Marshall. This is the third time during the past few years that death has invaded this household. On the first occasion Mr. Joseph Lambert, a brother of the deceased, was stricken with appendicitis, the disease proving fatal. Before the sorrow incident to the bereavement had subsided the mother of the family was called away, and while the gloom caused by this bereavement is still manifest, crape is again fluttering from the door knob. The father of the family, one of the most esteemed of all our citizens, now in the advanced evening of life, has the earnest sympathy of his many friends and acquaintances in the triple sorrows he has recently been called upon to bear. The sympathy for the widow of the deceased is equally as sincere.

Congressional Candidates.

All indications point to the fact that there will be several democratic candidates before the voters of this district for the nomination for Representative from the Eighth District, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. J. F. Rixey.

Alexandria brings out C. C. Carlin; Loudoun, J. F. Ryan; Prince William, Judge C. E. Nicol; Louisa, Lindsay Gordon, and Culpeper, J. G. Hiden. Each candidate is as able and deserving a man as ever graced the House of Representatives. No doubt each will have in the others enthusiastic and vigorous opposition. We have weighed the matter well, and have, after a conscientious perusal of the ability and qualities of the candidates, girded on our armor in support of C. C. Carlin, of Alexandria, for the nomination. Mr. Carlin is a young man of strictly business habits, an unflagging party worker, a man with the courage of his convictions and, should he receive the nomination, will make the Eighth District a useful and painstaking Representative. However, let no bitterness arise between the supporters of the various democratic candidate, but when the nomination of whoever it may be is made let us see to it that we stand as one man for him and save the district from republican rule.—[Fauquier Democrat.

Judge Nicol.

Judge C. E. Nicol, of the Circuit Court for the circuit comprising Alexandria city and county and Fairfax and Prince William counties, adjourned his court in Alexandria county on Saturday evening. The judge, as heretofore stated in the Gazette, expects to retire from the bench and tender his resignation to Governor Swanson between now and the fourth of March, though many of his friends throughout the circuit are urging him not to retire so early. The judge is a candidate for Congress and thinks it best to take this course by reason of his conviction that the judiciary should be kept apart from politics. He is highly gratified by the expressions of regret on the part of many people throughout his circuit upon learning of his intention to resign. After giving up the judgeship, Judge Nicol will devote himself to his campaign. He states that he has received most encouraging reports from every section of the district. Judge Nicol has been on the circuit bench a number of years, and his retirement is a source of regret to all with whom he has come in contact, his courteous and considerate manner, having won for him many warm personal friends who believed that he would remain where he was till a vacancy occurred in the Court of Appeals when they felt confident he would be elevated to that position.

Death of F. M. Wood.

Mr. Francis M. Wood, who had recently been suffering from pneumonia, died at his home, No. 920 Duke street, at one o'clock this morning. The deceased leaves a widow and one daughter. Mr. Wood was a native of Stafford county, having been a son of Aaron and Ann Wood, but he had spent most of his life in Alexandria. He was for a long time an employee of the Southern Railway Company. Mr. Wood was a member of Belle Haven Council, J. O. U. A., and during the civil war he was a soldier in the Confederate army. The deceased was 65 years old.

Affects Alexandrians.

Of the Southern Railway conductors, trainmen and yardmen, who are to receive an increase in wages aggregating between $350,000 and $400,000 a year, Alexandria will reap the largest profits, as this city has about 300 men who will have their salaries increased through the agreement. Of this number about twenty-five are conductors, and the remainder are brakemen and yardmen.

The Alexandria Athletic Association basket ball team on Saturday night defeated the Vesper team of Washington by the score of 22 to 5.

Mission at St. Mary's Church.

Notwithstanding the bad weather yesterday St. Mary's Catholic Church was filled by large audiences at all the services eager to hear the missionary priests.

The mission was opened by Father Waters, who preached an appropriate sermon on the manner of making the mission profitable. He insisted especially that all should take advantage of this splendid opportunity secured to them by their zealous pastors of complying with their religious obligation.

At 7:30 p. m the church was again filled by a devout and attentive audience. Rev. A. J. Van Ingelgem preached an eloquent sermon. He took for his text the words: "What doth it profit a man if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his soul." He spoke in glowing terms of the value of the soul and its final destiny, dwelling on what God had done to save it, explaining man's innate desire for happiness and the mistakes he makes in seeking that happiness outside of God. Final and everlasting happiness, he said, can be found only by following Christ, who is the way to the glories of heaven and the arms of our loving Father.

Every morning this week there will be mass and a short sermon at 6 and 8 o'clock. At 3:30 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday there will be special services for the children.

At 7:30 p. m. there will be regular mission services all the week.

Next week there will be special services every evening for those who would like to hear an explanation of Catholic doctrines and practices, which are sometimes so little understood. Though they may not believe in the Catholic Church, all fairminded men want to know what she really teaches.

Alexandrian in Mexico.

E. M. Demaine returned Sunday from Bisbee, where he was to secure equipment necessary for the opening of a camp on the big exploration concession he recently acquired in the Sierra Azuls. The concession is 6,000 meters square and is located about 30 miles out from Cananea. Supplies were sent out and two camps opened on the concession this week. Copper silver ledges are prevalent on the concession, a number of these having been found which show high grade ore on the surface. Mr. Demaine has found sufficient to this time to warrant him in expectation that he will make important announcements and that from some of the ledges he has found he will be able to make immediate shipment as soon as he commences development work. The Sierra Azuls have in the last few months attracted a good deal of attention and present activity in the mountains promises to bring about more important results than have heretofore been obtained in the promising range.—[Cananea (Mexico) Herald February 16.

Mr. Demaine is a son of Mr. W. H. Demaine, of this city.

The Churches.

Services in the churches yesterday were fairly well attended, despite the snow. A large congregation gathered in St. Mary's Catholic Church at the vesper services in the evening, when a mission was opened by Rev. Father Thomas Waters and Rev. Father H. J. Van Ingelgem, of the Virginia Apostolate. The mission, as heretofore stated, will last two weeks, and the services will be held daily at 6 and 8 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

In the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at the evening services an interesting address on the theme. "Loyalty," was delivered before a large congregation by Representative James T. Lloyd, of Missouri. A portion of his remarks was directed especially to young men and young women of the church.

At the morning services in Christ Church, Rev. E. J. V. Hulgian, of Beverly, Mass., delivered the sermon, and also preached at the evening services in Grace Episcopal Church.

More Wintry Weather.

The circle around the moon last Saturday night proved to be a more correct meteorological sign than the ground hog's shadow. The former has always been regarded as an indication of approaching falling weather, and the omen was amply fulfilled yesterday. Snow began to fly at an early hour, which continued until late yesterday afternoon, when hail fell for a time. The depth attained was attained was about 3 inches. The heavens became clear during the night. The mercury at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 22°. By noon it had ascended to 45° and much of the snow had disappeared.

On both occasions he preached able and interesting sermons. Mr. Huiginn was accompanied to Alexandria by his wife, and while here they were the guests of Dr. Thomas B. Cochran. They left for their home today. Mr. Hervey Lunt, secretary of Liberty Lodge, who also rspresented that lodge at the Washington Lodge banquet on the night of the 22d, left for his home in Beverly yesterday. Family Theatre.

The Family Theatre will offer a rare treat in the way of a straight moving picture show all this week, including Tom Moore, the popular and well-known baritone, in illustrated songs. The programme being changed completely on Thursday. Additional motion pictures will be substituted for the vaudeville acts heretofore given, one of the feature subjects being the marriage of Princess Ena of Battenburg to King Alfonso of Spain, the most beautiful film on the market. Other subjects are those advertised for last week which were substituted by others, owing to a mistake in the shipment of our films from New York, to wit, "Bold Bank Robbery," "Post no Bills," "Dream of a Rarebit Fiend," "The Custom House Search," and "Three American Beauties."

Stole Girl's Hat.

While two young white girls living on Duke street were passing the southwest corner of Prince and Fairfax streets last Saturday night they were accosted by two young colored women, one of whom pulled the hat from the head of one of the white girls and ran. The companion of the latter started after the woman and overtook her, when the woman turned suddenly and kicked her pursuer violently in the side. The two women made their escape.

Congressional Candidates.

It is understood that Judge White, of Fauquier county, has decided to withdraw from the congressional race in this district, and that Mr. James C. Hoge, of Loudoun, may enter the list. Mr. J. G. Hiden, it is also understood, will not be a candidate. This leaves in the field Messrs. C. C. Carlin and T. H. Ficklin, of this city; Judge Nicol, of Prince William; Mr. J. H. Ryan, of Loudoun, and Mr. R. Lindsay Gordon, of Louisa.

The Ferry Service.

Superintendent Callahan, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, says that the company has no idea of discontinuing the ferry service between Washington and Alexandria, according to a report, but admitted that the two double-end boats would probably be chartered to a company for use during the Jamestown Exposition, in which event a side-wheeler will be temporarily used for the ferry route.

Establishment of Our House

Is Announced for Week Beginning Today.

In celebrating the anniversary of the 27th year of the rounding of our vast establishment, we realize that the passing years have been a gradual unfolding of our business enterprise, each contributing to the sturdy growth of which this occasion is the perfected fulfillment.

Usefulness has been the impetus which has enlarged our borders, increased our facilities, and developed our resources, until this auspicious day finds our house foremost among commercial establishments in the National Capital, where our achievements have kept pace with the rapid strides of civic development.

The reward of this service is commensurate with our unswerving purpose, and it is with an abiding gratification that we cherish the hearty indorsement of our public, which testifies, by its unbroken patronage and loyalty to its confidence in our worth—a verity which has been steadily maintained during these years of our advancement.

In acknowledgment, then, of this cordial encouragement of our ideals, endeavors, and achievements, we bring to our patrons the "tithes" of our abundance by offering for their consideration exceptional value in each and every department of our store, each day bringing fresh opportunities not only to obtain new, seasonable merchandise at anniversary prices, but to rejoice with us in the celebration of our long years of uninterrupted prosperity and public service.

BRITISH CASTE.

Love of the Englishman For a Titled Ruling Class.

The presence of a personal sovereign is the outward and visible sign that caste is still supreme in the British empire. The external abuses of the feudal system have been abolished in Great Britain, one by one, until those that still linger are almost harmless, but the inner spirit survives to this late day, and even now its manifestations are abundant in almost every part of the social structure of the British Isles.

There is still alive the fiction that the king rules and that the army of the empire is his majesty's army. There is still a willing acceptance of the titled aristocracy and also of an upper house, the vast majority of whose members sit there by the right of birth only, without regard to their individual merits.

No doubt the British people could change these things speedily and without violence if they really desired to get rid of this inheritance from feudalism. But they have not got rid of it, and this is evidence enough that they do not wish to do so.

The British see no reason to abolish a state of affairs which the American people look at with amazed wonder as a survival of the dark ages. A native American finds it wholly impossible to understand the mental attitude of a certain man of letters in London, who justified his ingrained toryism by the assertion that he simply would not be ruled by his equals.—Reader.

THE WILD CARROT.

One of the Most Interesting of Our Native Plants.

A weed has been defined as "a plant that persists in growing where it is not desired." Surely the wild carrot is a most weedy weed from the point of view of that definition and of the dislike of the farmer. As to the persistence, our veteran farmer-naturalist John Burroughs tells us: "Cut off the head of the wild carrot, and in a week there are five heads in room of the one. Cut off these, and by fall there are ten looking defiance at you from the same root."

The only fault of the wild carrot, as of other so-called weeds, is too great success in life. It is guilty only of persistence. But from a nature lover's point of view there are, strictly speaking, no weeds. No plant is disliked. On the contrary, the more a plant is able to strive successfully for life the more of interest it is. We can also see and appreciate the beauty without the "weedy" dislike.

If in this spirit observers will examine the wild carrot the verdict will be that it is one of the prettiest and most interesting of our native plants. The beauty is especially noticeable in the full bloom, or Queen Anne's lace, form. Perhaps some may regard the bird's nest form as the most interesting.—Exchange.

Kicks Its Food Into Its Mouth.

"This is an aye-aye," said the keeper of the monkey house. "Watch it kick its food into its mouth."

The aye-aye, a handsome lemur, hurried to the plate of cut carrots that the keeper had just pushed under the bars. It stood before the food, which it took up piece by piece in its fore paw and tossed swiftly through the air into its open mouth. Like a juggler, it kept a yellow chain of carrots curving through the air from its foot to its mouth continuously. The quick toss of the leg with which this was done had, undeniably, the look of a kick.

"Aye-ayes come from Madagascar," the keeper said. "They are nocturnal in their habits, and they live in holes. The natives regard them with superstitious reverence. They are the only creatures extant that kick their food into their mouths."

The Sin of Insurance.

"When life insurance was first instituted," said an antiquary, "the church and pious people generally were dead set against it. They said that it was gambling in human lives. They said, too, that it would encourage murder. They were right in a way. Life insurance is gambling in human lives—only the odds are so greatly in the companies' favor that they can never lose. It is also an encouragement to murder. A good many murders are committed every year for the sake of life insurance policies. But these evils are no more than fly specks on the great beneficent life insurance bodies. Life insurance does so much good that the evils attendant on it are by comparison nil."

Endorsed by the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Piles of people have Piles. Why suffer from piles when you can use DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve and get relief. Nothing else so good. Beware of imitations. See that the name is stamped on each box. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. If safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

"How did Mrs. Getthere contrive to break her husband of smoking?"

"She wouldn't allow any cigars in the house except what she bought herself, and he had to smoke them to avoid hurting her feelings."—Baltimore American.

Reasonable.

Father (after a long search for a book)—Well, here it is. I wonder why one always finds a thing in the last place in which one hunts? Son—I expect it's because when we find what we are looking for we stop hunting.

Chance For a Laugh.

Aspirant—What do you think of my little poem, "He Always Refused to Smile?" Editor—Well, I think if you had given him the poem to read you would have broken the spell.

His Golden Opportunity.

A Baltimore man tells of an address made to some school children in that city by a member of the board of trustees. "My young friends," said the speaker, "let me urge upon you the necessity of not only reading good books, but of owning them, so that you may have access to them at all times. When I was a young man I used frequently to work all night to earn money to buy books, and then get up before daylight to read them."—Success Magazine.

His Mistake.

"I thought it was a good time to ask the old gentleman for his daughter. He is suffering from a recently broken arm."

"I found I made a mistake in not waiting until he broke a leg."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
